

World Storytelling day!

World Storytelling day is around the corner!

Did you know that World Storytelling day is on the 20th of March? It's a day where people all around the globe share their stories. The celebration is held in 25 countries on 5 continents! Isn't that amazing?!

If you have a story to share, a book is an amazing tool to use. So why don't start writing your story today? Click here to begin.

Spring is finally coming!

Maybe the most beautiful season of them all! Spend a lot of time outside and enjoy the many variations of light during this period. Don't forget to bring your camera. Solentro encourages photography by giving you a little guide in how to develop your photography.

While trying to take a picture of a person in backlight, the most common problem is that the person is getting too dark while the landscape around is of correct exposure. To avoid this, step closer to the object so that it makes up the entire image area while installing the camera for the right light setting. Then take a step back and take your photo.

You can also use spot metering by measuring the level of light on the persons face for example. By using this method your landscape will become brighter and the person will have a better exposure. You can also use the flash in order to compensate for the heavily lit landscape in the background.

Have fun with your camera and don't forget to put your beautiful pictures together and create a photo book filled with memories to share with friends and family. Log in to your Solentro account by clicking here.

Great Quality, Extremely Happy!

This book was a gift for a friend - it consisted of mainly writing but also a few photos here and there. She was impressed by the book (and so was I!).

The templates on the website were really easy to use and I made a few myself. It's a very simple concept, easy to get the hang of. I ordered the book at the end of November and it arrived in less than 2 weeks. The photos and the text were both high quality and I am very satisfied!

Would 100% recommend.
